From "Fire, Flood and Fenland Folk"

In 1858/60 Edward emigrated with his wife and 2 sons Thomas and George to Australia where they made contact with Edward senior

With his family headed for gold fields and moved from one to the other as the gold ran out.

Edward and Betsy and children returned to England on the corn barque 'Jade' with Captain Scott as Master. Betsy was pregnant. Captain asked if it was a boy to name him Scott and if a girl named after the ship. Jade Rowitt was born 1880 in Billingham

With the gold he brought a farm and a threshing machine
