Genes reunited message from Graham Hollox

Malcolm. Glad to meet up with you. Yes, it is the same Edward. Edward Hammond, a coal miner, was born to George and Keziah Hammonds in 1818 in Dawley (now Telford), Shropshire. He was married twice.

He married his first wife, Elizabeth, also born in 1819, and the couple produced 6 children between 1839 and 1846.

However I cannot find the marriage details in the national index and but they should be in Parish Records. Elizabeth died on 6 March 1850.

Edward remarried Mary Ann Osborne (as spelled in the marriage records) who was apparently born in Fulham 1824 By 1861 five children (Richard 20 – also a coal miner, Elizabeth 15, George 9, Keziah 3 and John 1) and a stepson (Richard Osbourne 17 another coal miner) lived with them . By 1881 three more children (Mary Ann 16, Henry 9 and Ann Maria 7) are listed. We go back to this Henry and we are in close contact with another relative who goes back to Richard and his old family bible has been very helpful.

I have opened up our family tree which gives you the bare bones of what we know. Would you do the same for me please as we would like to exchange information in more detail. Feel free to contact us on jilgra@btinternet.com. We are in Bridgnorth, Shropshire. Best regards. Graham
